

2009–10

RESIDENCE HALL APPLICATION

You do not need to be admitted to the University of Oregon before submitting your housing application, although we cannot process your housing application if you have not yet applied to the university. The priority deadline for residence hall housing is March 31; however, space is generally awarded on a first-come basis, and housing is not guaranteed, so applying as early as possible (after applying for admission to the UO) is strongly encouraged. Incomplete applications will delay processing.

Only the student should fill this out—remember, the student is the one who is going to live here! If you are making a specific roommate request, your hall preferences AND room types MUST match that of your roommate.
